Wairarapa Bush Supports

A cuddle cot for the Wairarapa Hospital Maternity Ward

DONATE NOW

Campaigns Awareness, In Memory, We are fundraising for a cuddle cot for the Wairarapa Hospital. A cuddle cot allows parents to be able to take their angel baby home and place them in their bassinet. It is a cooling system which fits inside a bassinet and preserves angel babies. It allows grieving parents the opportunity to be able to take home their babies and spend as much time as possible with their newborn- to take pictures, hold their newborn, create memories and grieve for their loss.

The Cuddle cots cost $5000 and are imported from the UK. Anything will help this wonderful cause and Nick and I are hoping that by fundraising for a Cuddle cot for the Wairarapa Hospital we are giving parents the opportunity to create memories with the little time that have. All proceeds will go towards the Cuddle Cot for Wairarapa Hospital and for purchasing the bassinet and linen.

The money will go into a verified bank account named C A PERCY which once the target is reached will pay for the Cuddle cot. Thanks for taking the time to read about this cause and for supporting us in A Cuddle for Beau. Courtney.

To allow the Wairarapa Hospital Maternity ward a Cuddle cot so parents of angel babies can spend all the precious time they have with their babies instead of having to worry about keeping them cool.

Dead Ball Charlie's Highlights of the week

I just don't know what to say – who is going to be in the final? I have not got a clue and the word on the street is that for the first time in years – KNOW ONE KNOWS – Our Rugby – Just Brilliant.

Had a snifter with the Wairarapa Bush Rugby Supporters Club during week – what a great bunch of people - passionate, hardworking and just fun to be around.

Seriously if you haven't been down to the park to watch the college and JAB rugby on a Wednesday and Saturday night, you have been missing some great rugby.
