Wairarapa Bush Rugby Union President

Today we welcome Ngati Porou East Coast Under 13's and their Heartland team to the capital of the Heartland Rugby. East Coast have always proved to be a team that gives its all when away from home. To all officials, players and supporters welcome.

The game tonight will I'm sure be the usual spectacle of flair and fast rugby. The Farriers Wairarapa Bush team will have Cameron Hayton playing his 50th and the added pressure of the famous 1981 Champion team looking on. A weekend reunion for the greats of yesteryear. A chance for all to meet, greet and reminisce.

So to all visitors and locals, tonight's games and festivities are there for all to enjoy. As always be loud be proud and always respect the rights of others to enjoy our great game. As usual the supporters club at the Gravel Pit will give all a Warm Wairarapa Welcome.

Kia Kaha.

Wairarapa Bush Rugby Union Chairman

Hikurangi maunga, Hikurangi tangata- tena koutou.

Haere mai koutou ki te riu o Wairarapa, ki ona iwi katoa, otira ki te whanau whutuporo e whakatau nei matou i a koutou.

A very warm welcome to Ngati Porou East Coast. It is our great pleasure to host your U13s team, your supporters, officials, management and senior team for this important last round of the Heartland competition in 2016.

Both teams have much to play for. For the locals, a win is crucial to making the Meads Cup playoffs. For the visitors, there is a lot of mana in the Cambridge Blue jersey and in representing your home with pride.

I would like to extend a special welcome to the past players and management of our 1980s teams. You gentlemen and those around you set the bar high for all of us that have had the privilege to serve our union.

We, of the current era, salute you and we aspire to making a contribution to the story of Wairarapa Bush that matches your enthusiasm, pride and belief.

ROBERT ALGIE MEMORIAL SPORTS TRUST INC.

Thank you for supporting today's "bucket appeal" which is to support The Robert Algie Memorial Sports Trust Inc. This trust was established in 1990, two years after the talented young sportsman, Robert Algie died.

In his memory a fundraising campaign was instigated by his family, the Featherston District and Featherston Sports Clubs, particularly the Wrestling and Rugby Clubs. This initial money, along with further donations and continuing fundraising by the Trustees is invested and the interest earned from this investment is paid out in the form of grants to young Wairarapa sports people under the age of 20.

To date approx. $150 000 has been raised for this fantastic cause.
